A disputed claim for payment of a gambling debt may be resolved by the board in accordance with this chapter.

24. Resolution of dispute
Whenever a dispute arises as between a patron and a licensee, as to the payment of alleged winnings or precise amount thereof to the patron by the licensee, or payment of a gambling debt or precise amount thereof by a patron to the licensee, and both parties are unable to resolve the dispute, then:

(a) either party or both of them shall refer the dispute to the Chief Executive Officer of the board or his delegate for resolution.

(b) the Chief Executive Officer shall, upon referral of the dispute, expeditiously resolve the dispute.

For the purposes of resolving the dispute, the Chief Executive Officer may conduct such inquiries, inspect any books or documents and question such persons as are necessary or relevant or connected to the dispute: Provided that the Chief Executive Officer shall afford both the patron and licensee an opportunity to present their cases to him before he or she resolves the dispute.

The Chief Executive Officer’s decision on the dispute shall, save in the case of appeal, be final and binding on the parties.

After making a decision on the dispute the Chief Executive Officer shall inform a party aggrieved by his or her decision that such a party has a right of appeal against such decision to the board.

Save where an appeal has been lodged in terms of the provision of regulation 25 of these regulations, the party against whom the Chief Executive Officer has made a decision shall be obliged to pay the winnings or gambling debt within a period determined by the Chief Executive Officer.

The Chief Executive Officer may delegate any power, function or duty in terms of this regulation to any member of the staff of the board, on such conditions as he or she may determine.

A patron or licensee aggrieved by the decision of the Chief Executive Officer may, within 14 days of being notified of such decision, lodge an appeal in writing to the board.

The board shall, with due regard to expediency, hear and determine the appeal, and may thereafter confirm, reverse, set aside the Chief Executive Officer’s decision or make such an order as it deems appropriate.

The appeal shall be determined and be heard by the board in such a manner and in accordance with such procedure as the board may determine: Provided that the board shall afford the parties to the appeal the opportunity to present their cases before it makes a decision on appeal.

The decision of the board shall be final and binding on the parties to the appeal.

A patron or licensee against whom a decision has been made on appeal by the board shall be obliged to pay the winnings or gambling debt in terms of the order made by the board.

Where a patron is obliged to pay a gambling debt in terms of an order made by the Chief Executive Officer and has not appealed to the board against the said order, or is obliged to pay a gambling debt in terms of an order made by the board on appeal and has not made an application for review of the board’s decision or order, but fails to make such a payment, the board may include such a patron’s name in the list of excluded persons, in accordance with Chapter 6 of these regulations.

The board may recover the costs of an appeal from the party lodging an appeal.

An estimate of the cost of an appeal will be made available upon request.
28. Deposit and withdrawal of amount of claim upon judicial review

   (2) The board shall release the amount held in trust, including interest accrued thereon -

       (a) to the patron, within 7 days after a final, non-appealable order of a court that so directs; or

       (b) to the licensee, within 7 days after a final, non-appealable order of a court that the licensee is not required to pay the claim.

   (2) No name shall be placed on the list until such time as the person concerned has had notice of the intention of placing his or her name on the list and been given an opportunity to be heard: Provided that the provisions of this subregulation shall not be applicable to a person whose name appears in exclusion lists of any other gambling regulatory body: Provided further that such a person’s failure to respond to an invitation by the board to be heard or failure to request the opportunity to be heard shall not result in the board being prevented from conducting such a hearing in the absence of that person, and from placing that person’s name on such a list, if the evidence is sufficient.

(3) The burden of showing good cause for removal from the list shall at all times rest with the petitioner.
