VUSUMUZI Vilakazi has landed a top position at Chippa United following his exit from Golden Arrows on Sunday.

The 40-year-old penned a heartfelt letter to Arrows in announcing his departure after spending 20 years at the club.

Alongside co-coach Mabhuti Khenyeza, Vilakazi had guided Arrows to an impressive second spot on the Premiership standings after the first six games.

Vilakazi, surprisingly, was announced as the new head technical director of Chippa on Tuesday, ending speculation about his next job.

"Chippa United Football Club is pleased to announce the appointment of Mr Kanu Vilakazi as the new head technical director of the club," Chippa announced in a statement.

"Mr Vilakazi is set to oversee the club's development structures and senior team.

"His vast experience and deep expertise will play a crucial role in uplifting the performance levels of our club as a whole.

"He will work closely with the first team's technical staff, offering support to our head coach."

Chilli Boys chairperson Siviwe "Chippa" Mpengesi expressed his delight at landing Vilakazi's services, with the expectations of him influencing the club's brand of football in all departments.

"Having Mr Vilakazi, with his calibre and experience, join our club is indeed a proud moment for us. I am eagerly anticipating his contribution to our development structures, and confident that his insights will immensely benefit our first team," Mpengesi said.

"As Chippa United Football Club, we are optimistic that with Mr Vilakazi's leadership, the club is poised to usher in an era of footballing brilliance, building upon its robust legacy which is to be the Pride of the Eastern Cape."

Vilakazi arrives at Chippa after the club had to withstand a tough opening period of the season, where they faced Kaizer Chiefs, Orlando Pirates and Mamelodi Sundowns in their opening six league fixtures.

Under the guidance of coach Morgan Mammila, who once held the same position as Vilakazi, the club managed six points in that same period - having lost two, won one and drawn three matches before the international break.

The Gqeberha-based outfit will next take to the field on 19 September,
